

Purpose:

The student will use the internet and library to research the impact a person has made on government. The student will gain knowledge in the research process, and gain an insight to the history of the US Government.

Materials:

Internet
Word processing
Library
Books

Vocabulary:

Biography
Belief
Conclusion

Procedure:

1. You will select a person from the list below. Begin to research the assigned person. Follow instructions and the format for putting together paper.

2. Your paper must include the following:

- Cover Page
- Biographical background
- Political beliefs and ideas of the person, such as, what is the governments responsibility to the people, and what is the people's responsibility to the government
- Personal conclusions
- Bibliography

3. Select an individual from the list below.

George Washington	Aristotle	Thomas Paine
James Madison	Mao Tse-tung	Voltaire
Abraham Lincoln	Niccolo Machiavelli	Oliver Cromwell
John Hancock	Edmund Burke	John Knox
Karl Marx	William Penn	John Marshall
Adam Smith	John Jay	John Locke
James Monroe	David Hume	Baruch Spinoza
Plato	Thomas Malthus	Thomas Hobbes
John Stuart Mill	Baron de Montesquieu	Robert Owen
Thomas Jefferson	Jean Jacques Rousseau	Benjamin Franklin

Product:

The final paper will be typed, using APA Style. The paper must have at least five sources. Only two sources may come from the internet. Wikipedia will not be considered as a source. The paper will be double spaced and a 12 point font will be used. Paper will be submitted electronically.